Susan Puelz “Chasing Rainbows II”

Omaha, NE – Anderson O’Brien Fine Art will open a new exhibition featuring watercolorist Susan Puelz on Friday, May 7, 2010. An opening reception with the artist will be held on Friday, May 7 from 5:00 to 7:00 p.m. The exhibition will be on view through Saturday, May 22.

Puelz creates luminous views of Midwestern landscapes and skies. She is known for her unique layering of pastel and watercolor that, along with the use of multiple analogous rather than complimentary color combinations, creates paintings that produce rich glowing colors.

Puelz has captured awards across the United States; including multiple Watercolor USA honors and her work has won the prestigious Van Vichten-Lineberry Award from the Taos Art Museum three times. She has exhibited extensively, and her watercolors are included in numerous private, museum, and corporate collections, and in a variety of publications.

Susan Puelz received her B.F.A. in Art from the University of Nebraska, Lincoln in 1980, and her M.F.A in Painting from the University of Nebraska, Lincoln in 1984. She was a Visiting Assistant Professor at the University of Nebraska, Lincoln from 1984-2004 where she taught watercolor, design, drawing, and art history. Ms. Puelz resides in Lincoln, Nebraska where she continues to produce vivid works of art.
